The IE Lawtomation Centre presents:

Future-proofing Legal Education in the Age of AI

Wayne Holmes (PhD, University of Oxford) is a Professor in the UCL Knowledge Lab at University College London.

His research takes a critical studies perspective to the teaching and application of Artificial Intelligence in educational contexts (AI&ED), and their ethical, human, and social justice implications.

Wayne is leading the Council of Europe's project: Artificial Intelligence and Education. A critical view through the Lens of Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law; he is also Consultant for the Technology and AI in Education unit at UNESCO, for which he co-wrote AI and Education: Guidance for Policy-makers; and he is Senior Researcher in AI&ED for IRCAI (the International Research Centre on Artificial Intelligence under the auspices of UNESCO).
